Chips

As your special correspondent to Penn State, we bring you the following dope about the recent invasion of the northern campus by 250 George Washington fans. Since that many made the trip, we can admit we were present, too, and still not reveal our identity.

The big parade to State started Thursday night when the team climbed in Pullman berths at the Union Station and tucked the excellent Pullman blankets snugly around them. They got to the Nittany-Lions den Friday forenoon.

Following them came our namesake, the galloping green Ford, Dick Rollo, the property of Frank Kreglow, who was accompanied by Herb Angel and Bill Dismar's tax.

From then on there was a constant stream of cars, including ours, pouring into the town. And then, Friday night, the round of visits to fraternity house-parties began. Meeting at one fraternity house previously designated, the group of 35 arriving Friday made the rounds of formal dances, finishing about three in the morning.

At the game itself, and throughout the game, the group, now in full strength, made a compact cheering section over on the east side of the field. The three eggs on The Hatchet staff who were high-hat and sat in the press box tell us that the Theta Delta Chi pig yell came across the field to the Penn State stands loud enough to send over the microphone which was broadcasting the game through WPSG, the Penn State College radio station.

The score of the game, for those who haven't read the sport story yet, was 50-0. It is interesting to note that 44 points were scored in the first half, and only 6 in the final two periods. In both the first and second half the Colonials were face to face with two teams, with the State first and second teams alternating.

Though the Penn State stands thinned out considerably, the G. W. group remained intact until the final whistle, a fact that brought favorable comment from the Nittany rooters.

After the game, informal dances at all fraternity houses began, and were attended until midnight Saturday when they broke up. By vote of the G. W. fans plus the G. W. team, who were allowed to break training to that extent, the following ratings were made:

Sigma Chi had the best orchestra. Sigma Nu had the best cats. Sigma Alpha Epsilon had the best looking girls, except, of course, for the G. W. girls who went to the game. The best house was, and is still, the subject of controversy.

The Buff and Blue visitors finally collected at the Sigma Chi house, where Jerry Sickler was host. There, as at all other houses visited, the G. W. students introduced the custom of "cutting." All fraternity groups contributed their yells, but since we were the only representatives of ours, we yelled alone. Hooray, Hooree, Hoorye, Hoorow, Hoorue!

Get the idea? If so, think nothing of it.

Then, at one-thirty Sunday morning, everybody congregated at The Corner, which to the Penn Staters is Club Quigley, Wardman, Child's, the Green Lantern, and the Embassy all rolled in one.

Much whoopee was made. Several souvenirs were acquired, including a huge Penn State megaphone playfully called "The Baby." This baby was smuggled to a waiting auto, under a borrowed blanket, so we are told, and is now somewhere at G. W. U. It has our autograph on it, and also the John Hancock of all who were there. Or, if all signatures aren't there, they will be by the end of the week.

Meanwhile, we learn that at G. W., one of the profs. unable to make the Penn State trip, gave his class an examination under the direction of his assistant, and went to the Michigan-Navy game. And, as we said before, think nothing of it.

DICK ROLLO.

DR. RAGATZ PUBLISHES PART TWO OF SYLLABUS

The second volume of Dr. Ragatz's "A Syllabus for the Study of Medieval Times" has just been published. ## TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS MADE FOR THIRD UNIT

Columbian Women Theater Benefit Proves to be Very Successful

DEAN CHARLES E. HILL ADDRESSES MEETING

Speaks on "The Presidency" and Tell of Presidents Who Have Had Strong Influence

Well over two thousand dollars was realized on the Columbian Women benefit theatre performance held the evening of October 29, and returns which are still coming in are expected to bring the total up to twenty-four hundred dollars, according to the report of Mrs. Edwin H. Behrend, Chairman of the Benefit, which was given at the Columbian Women meeting last Tuesday afternoon.

The report of the chairman was received with great enthusiasm by the members, and she was given a rising vote of thanks for her tireless efforts during the past five weeks in managing the benefit. The Columbian Women also expressed their hearty appreciation of the support given by the student body of the University. Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., Mrs. D. Kerfoot Shute, Mrs. Charles S. Collier, Dean Anna L. Rose, Dean Henry Gratton Doyle, and Mr. Theodore W. Noyes of the Evening Star, were cited for their invaluable assistance in making the benefit the success that it was. Mrs. Behrend spoke particularly of the work of Mr. Harvey W. Wiley, who as President of the Columbian Women was responsible in great measure for the initiation and successful carrying through of the benefit.

Dean Hill Speaks

Professor Charles E. Hill, Acting Dean of Columbian College, and Professor of Political Science in the University, was the speaker at the meeting, taking as his subject the timely election-day topic, "The Presidency." Members of Columbian Women who are wives of members of the faculty of the Law-School acted as hostesses during the social hour which preceded the meeting.

In speaking of the Presidency as the most powerful executive position, Dean Hill stated that no foreign monarch has powers commensurate with those of the President of the United States. At the same time, he pointed out, these powers are surrounded by safeguards against misuse, and the cases in which a president has attempted to overstep them have been negligible.

"I am often asked by my students which is the best government, the British or the American," said Dr. Hill. "To this I reply, 'There is only one test. Which works the best?' The British government which has developed over a long period of years, is well suited to the genius of the British people. The American Constitution, adopted in 1776, has been gradually modified since that time to fit the needs of the people. Today, for us, our system is best."

President's Powers Numerous

In enumerating the powers of the President Dean Hill stated that even so thorough a student of government as Woodrow Wilson did not know what they all were and that upon assuming the Presidency, he had requested Professor Holcombe of Harvard to make a complete survey of them. "This," said Dean Hill, "was not as yet completed. The most remarkable feature about the powers of the Chief Executive, Dean Hill stated, is that they are not yet fully developed. A strong personality in the office makes the power grow," he said. Jefferson, Jackson, Cleveland, Roosevelt, and Wilson were named by him as examples of presidents who had exerted strong personal influence in the office.

Miss Annie Graham Getty, Chairman of the Membership Committee, announced the following new life members: Miss Marian Clark, Miss Lettie Stewart, Miss Grace B. White and Miss Elizabeth Cullen. Thirty-seven new members were elected at the meeting, including Miss Ernestine Niemeyer, Miss Dorothy Nichols, Miss Harriet Ross, Miss Margaret Malze, Mrs. Harry Ford Anderson, Mrs. William McCormick Ballinger, Mrs. H. S. Bernton, Mrs. William Marshall Bland, Mrs. Josephine Borrows Bogan, Mrs. Daniel LeRoy Borden, Mrs. Robert Joseph Bosworth, Mrs. Earle Griffith Breeding, Mrs. Jeter Carroll Bradley, Mrs. Edward Ballard Brooks, Mrs. Thomas Cagias, Mrs. Louis Bernard Castell, Mrs. Cline N. Chipman, Mrs. Thomas Ash Clayton, Mrs. Arthur Charles Christie, Mrs. Cowden Baxter Conklin, Mrs. Sewell Munson Corbett, Mrs. Worth Bagley Daniels, Mrs. James Holmes Defendorf, Mrs. Frank Lewis Willman, Mrs. William Alanson White, Mrs. John Ogle Warfield, Mrs. Leslie Tracy Gager, Mrs. Frank Adelbert Hornaday, Miss Ella A. Hanft, Mrs. A. I. Kinear, Miss Marie Kroell, Mrs. Alexander MacDonald, Miss Margaret Vall, Miss Gertrude McLain, Mrs. Ben McKelway and Mrs. C. T. Watson.

Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, President of the Columbian Women, which organization held a very successful theatre benefit the evening of October 29, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the women's quarters in the proposed third unit of the University plant.

PROFESSOR DOING IMPORTANT WORK

Samuel F. Bemis of History Department of G. W. Entering Second Year of Research

WORK IS INVALUABLE

Professor Bemis Being Assisted by Mrs. Burnett, a Former G. W. Student

Professor Samuel F. Bemis, Chairman of the History Department at George Washington, is at present on a two year's leave of absence, representing the Library of Congress in foreign capitals by photographing dispatches of European Ambassadors from the United States to their home governments.

Previously, it was necessary for research students in American history to spend several years in the European capitals obtaining this valuable information from its original source. But two years ago, a resident of Buffalo donated $200,000 to the Library of Congress to be spent in taking pictures of these documents for research purposes. The money is being spent by the Library in gradually acquiring a complete set of the documents from 1783 to 1830, with any commercial and political information bearing on the United States. They also contain the customs and styles of that period.

Professor Bemis is now entering on his second year of research, having spent the first in England, Spain, France and Italy, photographing the documents himself. The photographic process is of unusual interest, since it makes possible the taking of a large document on a minute film, rolls of which can be shipped in a comparatively small space.

This material is now being arranged by a special staff at the Library, which is enlarging and cataloguing the prints, thus making them available to all research students. The research work, since now students need spend only a few months in Washington where they may obtain a complete set of documents which would have taken years to get from their original sources.

Professor Bemis is being assisted by Mrs. Robbie Berkeley Burnett, a former George Washington student who is at present working for her master's degree in American History at the University. They are just completing their work in Paris, and from there will go to Rome, Berlin, Vienna, Stockholm and Petrograd, finishing the entire research by next July.

This project is one of the most important ones in the present development of American history, and for this reason George Washington should feel especially honored that one of its professors was chosen, from the entire country, to represent the Library in this stupendous undertaking.

One of the leading young workers in the field on American history, Professor Bemis was chosen by the Library on account of his commendable work. In 1922, he was awarded the $3,000 Knights of Columbus prize for his book entitled "Jay's Treaty," considered the most outstanding study in American history for that year. Later, he received the $2,000 annual Pulitzer Prize for his "Pinckney's Treaty," published in 1926.

Professor Bemis has always specialized in Diplomatic History, and has edited the "Lives of the Secretaries of State" in ten volumes, the last four of which are now in course of publication. Professor Hill, acting Dean of Columbian College, contributed to two of these volumes.

NEWMAN CLUB TO MEET

The Newman Club will hold its regular meeting in Room 23, Corcoran Hall, on Tuesday, November 15, at 8:15 p. m. A feature of the meeting will be an open forum on the subject of "The Catholic Spirit in America." All students are invited.

CHERRY TREE TO HAVE SIX GIRLS IN BEAUTY SECTION

Sororities and Fraternities to Nominate Candidates; 12 To Be Chosen By Vote

PROMINENT ARTIST TO PICK MOST BEAUTIFUL

Seniors Who Fail to Have Pictures Taken Will Not Be Listed

The Cherry Tree Board met Wednesday, November 7, in Stockton Hall to perfect plans for the 1929 annual.

It was voted that all Seniors who fail to have their pictures taken will not be listed in the annual. Pictures may be taken until December 15th, at Edmonston's for $2.00, after that date the price will be $2.50.

Pictures for all-graduating classes will be taken in civilian clothes. All students are earnestly requested to list carefully all their activities and affiliations to insure their appearance in each group.

The Board also voted to run a beauty section in the new year book and devised a plan which it is hoped will prove more workable than those in past years. Each fraternity and sorority and other independent organizations are requested to name a candidate for the beauty section.

These names must be in the hands of the Cherry Tree Board before December 1st. The contestants will be published in The Hatchet and voting will take place for ten days during December. Dates will be announced later in The Hatchet. Each subscriber to the 1929 Cherry Tree is entitled to vote for his favorite beauty. The twelve girls receiving the highest number of votes will be asked to submit a photograph which will be sent to a well known artist or movie actor to choose the six most beautiful women on the George Washington Campus.

As the contest progresses the contestants names and respective standing will be published in The Hatchet but the final decision of the judges will not be learned until the appearance of the Cherry Tree, which rumor places on or about the first of May, 1929.

Each organization is requested to cooperate with the staff of the Cherry Tree by naming a favorite beauty and supporting her election to the first twelve.

Allan Nell, business manager, is offering a cup to the sorority selling the largest number of annuals.

THIRD OPEN DANCE TO BE GIVEN NOVEMBER 17

To Be for Benefit of Deficit Incurred by Junior Prom Committee Last Year

Another Open University Dance will be given this Saturday in Corcoran Hall from nine until twelve at the customary tax of one dollar per couple or stag.

The Interfraternity Council in sponsoring this dance is endeavoring to help the Junior Prom Committee of last year to pay off the deficit incurred on the Prom at that time. A dance was given last spring in an endeavor to do the same thing and while some of the deficit was wiped out there is still some left which it is hoped will be entirely cleared out after this dance.

Believing the Junior Prom to be a social asset to the University, the Council is doing everything possible in its power to keep the Junior Prom as one of the social events of the school year. Unless this deficit is made up at this dance it is very doubtful if the Junior Prom will be given this year.

It is hoped this dance will be as successful as the last two have been, and with this in mind Kenny Mulford has promised to have his band ready to do their part.

Preparations are nearing completion for the Thanksgiving Tea Dance to be given in Corcoran Hall.

DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION TO MEET NOVEMBER 14

The Dramatic Association will hold a meeting tonight, Wednesday, November 14, in Room 29 of Corcoran Hall. A program has been planned, consisting of monologues, readings from plays, and a one-act play.

The club is especially interested this year in original plays of George Washington University students. Those manuscripts which are submitted and approved will be read before the club. No original plays have as yet been received.

All who are interested in any phase of dramatics are urged to come to the meeting.

MISSING LINKS MEET

Sorority women who do not have their chapter on the campus are invited to join the Missing Links, a club of such women, at their next meeting in the Women's Building at noon tomorrow.

DESPITE GALLANT FIGHT G. W. GOES DOWN BEFORE ATTACK OF PENN ELEVEN

Hatchettes Outclassed in Every Department of Game as Strong Penn State Squad Triumphs by Score of 50 to 0 in Hard-Fought Game

LOPEMAN PLAYS HARD GAME AT BACKFIELD UNTIL TAKEN OUT OF GAME BECAUSE OF INJURY

George Washington Falls to Stop Rush in First Half But Holds Lions Down to One Touchdown in Last Half

Aroused to a fighting fury by the continuous cheering of some 200 loyal followers in the stands, the George Washington Colonials waged a gallant fight against the strong Penn State eleven last Saturday, only to lose by a score of 50-0. The Colonials were outclassed in every department of the game and from the first whistle it was only a matter of how large the score would be.

The Colonials, however, have nothing to be ashamed of, rather they should be proud of their showing against the Pennsylvanians. Although outclassed, the losers were far from being outfought, and throughout the game their gameness and "never-say-die" spirit marked them as one of the pluckiest teams ever to invade the Lions' threshold. On all sides were heard many favorable comments upon the splendid battle put up by the D. C. boys and the sympathy of the huge crowd was entirely with the light and inexperienced visitors.

W. A. C. SPONSORS RED CROSS DRIVE

National Roll Call Week to be Observed at George Washington University

CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED

Representatives of Red Cross to be On Duty in University Halls

A meeting of the Women's Advisory Council was held Tuesday, November 13, at 3.30, in the Women's Building. Dean Rose served tea to members of the council.

Dean Rose reminded the Council that this is National Roll Call Week in the American Red Cross. She spoke of the work that is being done all over the country by this philanthropic organization, and asked that the Council take charge of the Drive in George Washington.

President Marvin has authorized such an organization, in collaboration with similar groups in other universities. The Red Cross feels that there is a great field for expansion among college students, Dean Rose said.

Representative of G. W.

Representing as it does every phase of the women's life in the University, the Council was chosen to undertake this work so sponsored by women everywhere. It has been planned that there will be a representative of the Red Cross in Corcoran, Stockton, and Lisner Halls. There will be no soliciting members of the Council state; those who feel so inclined may go to the table and fill out a membership blank. Someone will be on duty at the following hours—Tuesday and Thursday from 4.15 to 10.15, and 4.45 to 6.15, Wednesday and Friday, from 9.45 to 12.15 and 4.45 to 6.15.

Those who have been unable to take advantage of this opportunity, may subscribe at the Cashier's Office or in those of Dean Doyle or Dean Rose. Membership for students in the Medical School will be taken in Miss Sillner's Office. The faculty will be canvassed and every effort made to put the Red Cross Movement over in George Washington.

Freshmen Challenge Sophs to Tug-of-War

Ninety Applications Received From Frosh Who Want to Pull on Rope

The Sophomore class has been challenged by the Freshmen to a tug-of-war. Wearers of the blue caps are organizing teams and playing for practices.

Potomac Park, and if possible the Lincoln Memorial Pool, has been suggested as the scene for the contest.

"From the smallest to the largest want to get their hands on the rope" comments Edward Gruberman, manager for the freshman team who has received some 90 applications from those ranging in weight from 115 to 205 pounds.

Contestants in the heave and pull match must wear regular clothes. Bathing suits are barred.

The fray will probably be staged several days before the C. U. football game.

NOTICE

Will the student who saw a young man struck by a Buick sedan on Wednesday morning, October 31, 1928 about 9 a. m. kindly get in touch with Milton Conn, 104-105 Columbian Building. Phone: Franklin 6244.

During the second half, the Crummen came back with such a rush and punch that they looked like an entirely different team and succeeded in holding the upper hand for the last part of the game. Not that their fighting spirit was missing in the earlier parts of the game, but their power of resistance was so great in the last half that the Lions were able to cross the goal line only once.

Twice during the last period did the State team get as far as the Colonial 1-yard line, and twice did the Buff and Blue prevent them from crossing the last white line. It was a wonderful display of gameness and no one who saw the contest will ever forget the sterling courage that the Crummen displayed.

Threaten to Score

It was in the final period also that the Hatchettes came closer to the opposing goal line than they have been this season. Recovering a State fumble on the State 20-yard line, the Crummen took the ball to within one foot of the goal by a beautiful 15-yard pass from Barrows to Allshouse and a sturdy line plunge by Morrow. Clapper's pass, however, which was headed for a team-mate standing behind the goal line was knocked down and the Colonials lost the ball. But State fumbled again on the first play and G. W. once more threatened. Berkowitz took a pass from Barrows to the 10-yard line and Allshouse snared a heave from the same passer for 5 more yards but here the Crummen were penalized and State given the ball.

It was simply a case of a very strong team against a group of men still in their infancy as far as experience is concerned, and the result was inevitable. Long runs from 20 to 65 yards featured the scoring of most of the touchdowns while a costly fumble near the goal line helped the Lions to their third marker. One of the touchdowns also was the result of some misunderstanding on the part of the Colonial players who permitted an opponent to run unmolested to the score.

No one of the Colonials can be singled out for greater praise in his team's efforts than another. Each man on the eleven was on his toes throughout and a let-up was never noticed. Barrows and Berkowitz deserve equal credit for their passing combination which accounted for most of the losers' gains while Lopeman played a fine game until injured.

Lopeman Injured

This, by the way, was the hardest blow that the Crummen suffered and may handicap them severely for the rest of the season. In the middle of the second quarter, "Chalky" tackled an opposing runner with such force that his shoulder was dislocated. He was forced to leave the game and will probably be out for the remainder of the season.

It was the second time this year that the Hatchette star had been injured, as his knee was severely twisted in the Fordham clash. The captain returned to the line-up only two weeks ago and was playing brilliantly until his injury. The team will miss him in the back-field as he was on the passing end of most of the forward heave, while his toe was doing most of the kicking for the team.

Goldman and Davis played nice games at the guard posts, and stood up well under the battering that they received. The former has been a tower of strength to the team all season and has proven his worth many times during the games. According to Coach Crum, "Mike" is one of the most valuable players to the team and deserves much credit for his all-around playing. The veteran was playing under the handicap of a severely hurt knee but would not hear of leaving the line-up until late in the game. His spirit was characteristic of every man on the squad.

AS OTHERS SEE US

John Kieran in the New York Times, Tuesday, Nov. 6, 1928

"Speaking of coaches," said Lou Little, coach of Georgetown's unbeaten team, "the fellows who deserve the real credit are men like Crum at George Washington University. Where you have a couple of hundred candidates and a reasonable war chest, anybody ought to be able to turn out a football team. But Crum—you remember him; 'Maud' Crum he was called when he played half-back for Princeton five or six years ago—he has hardly enough men to fill up the positions, and he hasn't even a field to practice on. He has to take his men down to the tidal flats along the Potomac and work them out there. It's a public playground. If he wants to scrimmage, he has to play one half of his line against the other. Yet he had a fine team last year. This year it isn't doing so well. But I still think he deserves plenty of credit, and there are plenty more like him."

A PROBLEM ANSWERED?

Following the lead of the Pyramid Honor Society, which last week after declaring its confidence and pledging its support to the football team recommended the formation of an Athletic Council to determine questions of eligibility for the award of letters, the relations between the various men's sports, and other matters, the Men's G. W. Club in a meeting has just passed identical resolutions. To the opinions of the honor men of George Washington and men who have earned their letters in some university sport, has been added the statement of President Marvin to The University Hatchet, in which he commends the beginning in the student body of a keen interest in extra-curriculum activities. In this move to codify athletic relations within the University lies the solution to the problem of "outstanding, representative teams" for the University, according to the President.

Clearly some concerted effort on the part of the faculty and the student body is necessary in order to present sufficient material for athletic teams to the coach, so that another disastrous season will not come to the University in 1929. George Washington students want to see their teams play those of larger colleges and universities—and win. There must be some answer to the situation. The Pyramid Honor Society has offered a constructive suggestion, a suggestion that has been eagerly backed by the Men's G. W. Club and the President.

The answer may lie in the resolutions. The loyal George Washington student should read, and think, and act.

PRESIDENT LAUDS RESOLUTIONS

To The University Hatchet:
Your issue of November seventh carries a news article which is of special interest. I am glad for the resolutions passed by the Pyramid Society.

It seems to me that such resolutions mark one of the beginnings of student participation in the development of our extra-curriculum activities. I should like to see the idea carried to its logical conclusion. This, of course, will mean discussion of the appropriate methods of arriving at the best possible type of organization to give us the results desired.

I appreciate the section of the resolutions that pledges the Society's support to the team. I was glad for the splendid spirit manifested by the student body at last Saturday's game. It takes more than a vicarious participation to build a real football team, and I hope before another season comes upon us that we shall all be back of a fundamental program for the development of our physical education that will make for outstanding, representative teams from our University.

Yours very sincerely,

(Signed) CLOYD HECK MARVIN,
President.

OWING to the fact that the Hatchet is limited to thirty-six columns and that there may be one or two other little items of interest to go in them, it will be impossible to print the names of those who journeyed to Penn State for the game last week-end. Countless cars of all styles—from the well-known collegiate Ford to the not so well known sport roadster—were seen leaving the University at all hours of the day on Friday and Saturday. The defeat didn't have much effect on the gaiety of the crowd if the reports about the many 'good parties' up there are to be believed.

Delta Tau Delta announces the pledging of Edward Hall.

*Delta Zeta entertained a number of guests at tea last Sunday at the home of Alethea Lawton.

The pledges of Sigma Chi are entertained at a 'snoker' at the Sigma Chi House tonight.

Zeta Tau Alpha celebrated its fourth anniversary at George Washington University at a birthday supper on November 8th, at the Iron Gate Inn. ## Henderson Associated With Dutch Petrologist

Eric Williams, of Holland, Will Spend Three Months in Geological Survey, Studying Minerals

Mr. Edward P. Henderson of the Geology Department in George Washington, has been working with and entertaining Mr. Eric Williams from Holland.

Mr. Williams is a prominent petrologist in his mother country, and has been sent by the Dutch Government to study the methods employed by our geologists in determination of, and experimentation upon rare minerals.

It is an interesting fact that since there is a great scarcity of rocks in Holland, mineralogical knowledge is chiefly theoretical. There is but one corner of the country in which any finds may be made.

Mr. Williams will spend three months with Mr. Henderson at the Geological Survey and three months at Carnegie Institute. Upon completion of his observation he will return to Holland.

ORCHESTRA MEETINGS TO BE HELD EVERY FRIDAY

A meeting of the orchestra was held on Friday, November 9, at 7.15 p. m., in Corcoran Hall 1. The next meeting and following ones will be held at the same time in the same place every Friday evening.

"Largo," "Barcarolle," etc., are the type of light music played by the orchestra.

This organization is still very much in need of instruments, especially violins, and wood-winds. Unless the needed material is obtained very soon, there will be no more orchestra.

JEWISH SOCIETY MEETS

A meeting of the Successor Organization of the Menorah and Ayukah Societies was held last Wednesday evening in Stockton Hall. Dr. Tobias Danzig, Professor of Mathematics at Maryland University, spoke on the "Cultural Aspect of Mathematics." An open forum followed the lecture.

All members who are interested in applying for place on the debating team of this organization will please send in their names to the Secretary, Miss Bessie Litman.

Plans are being made for a debate with the Avukah team of Johns Hopkins University.

PROF. SERVISS TO SPEAK

Tau chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon Geologic Fraternity will hold its regular meeting in room 34 of Building 4, at seven o'clock of the evening of Thursday, November 15. After a short session for disposing of current business the members will listen to an address by Fred L. Serviss, mining engineer and Professor of Geology at Catholic University. ## Honorary Frat Holds Its Regular Meeting

Phi Delta Gamma Hears Report on Debating at G. W. U.

Phi Delta Gamma, men's honorary professional forensic fraternity, held its regular meeting on November 1, at which time an extensive report on debating at George Washington University was considered. The meeting was preceded by an informal dinner at the Park Lane Hotel Inn.

The report which was heard was the result of a long period of research and investigation extended over a period of three months by Raymond Crowel, secretary of the organization. It is expected by the members of the organization that the changes growing out of the several recommendations which were made will materially benefit debating at the University.

New members of Phi Delta Gamma are: Harold S. Blackman, George W. Spangler, and Gerald W. Sickler. All three men have distinguished themselves in dramatics during the last three years.

HOME EC CLUB PLANS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

The Home Economics Club is planning a membership campaign for which committee appointments are to be made in the near future.

Mildred Hart was elected president at the November 6, meeting. Fay Rives and Sara Reed were chosen for the offices of vice president and secretary.

The Club will hold a fireside supper on November 18 at the home of Mrs. R. B. Rollinson of East Falls Church, Va.

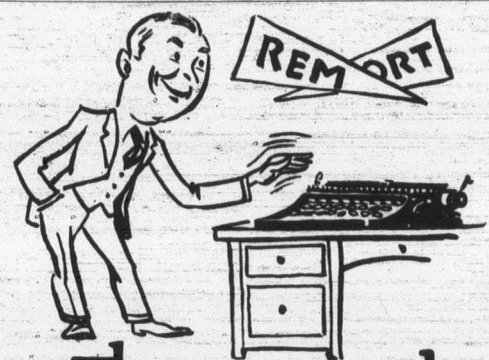

The aim of the organization is to bring home economics students in contact with vocational possibilities and openings in the field. Dr. N. C. Denton will continue in the position of faculty adviser.

T. U. O. ASSURED CHANCE AT TITLE OF FRAT LEAGUE

Third Straight Victory Gives Them Undisputed Lead in League A

GAME SCHEDULE AGAIN REVISED BY COUNCIL

Further Conflicts Cause Third Revision of Playing Dates by Interfraternity Group

Adding the scalp of the undefeated Delta Tau Deltas to their string, Theta Upsilon Omega made it three straight in the feature game of the week and practically clinched the League A pennant. With but one game yet to play, the worst the T. U. O.'s can do is a tie for first place and very few bets are being placed that they will have any games in the last column at the end of the season.

The K. A.'s put two victories on the winning side during the past week and have apparently decided that they still have a chance. They still have, however, two mighty powerful contenders, the undefeated Phi Sigs and S. A. E.'s. The race in League B, unlike that in League A, is far from over.

The standings up to and including last Wednesday's games are:

League A	W	L	Per.
T. U. O.	3	0	1.000
Sigma Chi	2	1	.666
D. T. D.	1	1	.500
Sigma Nu	1	1	.500
Theta Delta Chi	0	4	.000

League B	W	L	Per.
S. A. E.	2	0	1.000
P. S. K.	2	0	1.000
Kappa Alpha	2	1	.666
Acacia	1	2	.333
Kappa Sigma	1	2	.333
S. P. E.	0	3	.000

Schedule Revised

Again the basketball schedule has been changed by the interfraternity council, for reasons best known to themselves. The new schedule is as follows:

Monday, November 12—Phi Sigma Alpha v. Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Epsilon v. Kappa Sigma.

Monday, November 19—Delta Tau Delta v. Sigma Nu and Phi Sigma Kappa v. Kappa Sigma.

Wednesday, November 21—Kappa Alpha v. Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon v. Acacia.

Friday, November 23—Acacia v. Kappa Alpha and Sigma Chi v. Delta Tau Delta.

Saturday, November 24—Theta Upsilon Omega v. Sigma Nu and Phi Sigma Kappa v. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Monday, November 26—Finals between winners of League A and League B.

T. U. O.'s Win Third

With neither team defeated and the title of League A at stake, a game which had been predicted as a classic was played in the George Washington gym Monday night, and as many already know, T. U. O. sent the Delta Tau Delta hopes flying, 24 to 18. "Old man Classic," however, failed to show up and it was just another basketball game. The Deltas had a hunch that he was coming, but he was late, so they were late—their last minute rally availing them nothing but a little personal satisfaction.

The pace setting offensive which the undefeated T. U. O.'s had shown in their previous two starts, apparently met a snag in the Delta defense, but with a little luck and a lack of scoring ability on the part of the losers, they were able to pile up a nine-point lead in the first half which carried them through to the final whistle. Although making it their third straight victory, the winners failed to show the form they had displayed previously, and were fighting desperately to hang onto their slim lead when time was called.

Young T. U. O. forward, and one-third of the usually high-powered scoring combination, was the only third who was able to get "hot," dropping in five field goals to clinch high point laurels for the game. Pomeroy, guard for the winners, played fine ball, breaking up play after play of the Deltas. Cluster, substitute forward for the Deltas, with two long ones near the end of the game, sent the Delta fans in an uproar and shivers through the rest of the crowd, but he did not get into the game soon enough.

By winning this game, Theta Upsilon Omega remained the only undefeated team in League A, and is assured at least a tie for the league title. Sigma Nu, which has been beaten in both of its starts, is the only team which stands between T. U. O. and a clean slate, and a defeat at the hands of these tail-enders would create the biggest upset of the year.

Lineups for the game were:

T. U. O. (24)	D. T. D. (18)
Young (10) ..... RF.....	McOscar Herzog (4) ..... LF.....
Blain (1) ..... C.....	Christopher McGrew (4) ..... RG.....

Substitutions—Delta Tau Delta: Ruddiman for McOscar, Cluster (5) for Ruddiman, Van Ness (2) for Fleming, Eberly for Christopher, Karnes for Cornwell.

K. A. Wins

After being held for the first half, Kappa Alpha apparently received some inspiration during the rest period and came back to run wild over the Kappa Sigma quintet in the nightcap Monday night to the tune of 46 to 13. The winners were leading at the half, 18-3. Shortly after the start of the game the losers seemed to lose whatever incentive they had started with and from then on gave the K. A.'s practically no opposition at all. They were only able to sink two field goals during the game, both in the first quarter, the rest of their points coming from free throws. The Kappa Sigs were also held scoreless during the third quarter and a great portion of the fourth.

Although having been beaten in their first start by the Phi Sigs, the K. A.'s displayed a powerful combination and may yet have something to say about the champion of League B and of the school.

Scoring 17 points with little difficulty, "Larry" Phillips was easily the outstanding man of the game. It seemed that he just couldn't miss, but he didn't take any chances, shooting in almost every instance from under the basket.

Lineups for the game were:

K. A. (46)	K. S. (13)
Phillips (17) ..... RF.....	Robertson (5)

S. P. E. Defeated

Kappa Alpha hung up their second victory of the week when they defeated Sigma Phi Epsilon in the first game Wednesday night, 27 to 10. In describing the game, the terribly rite expression, "the score does not indicate the closeness of the game," must be used. But the K. A.'s won, and that is what counts in the interfraternity race.

The losers, as has been their custom this year, played great defensive ball, but again as usual, they were absolutely unable to touch the basket. They did drop in a couple early in the game, but after that they played for the most part in the wrong end of the court.

The K. A.'s did not show the strong offensive they displayed Monday night, but perhaps it was the competition. But "Bubby" Terry, assisted every go often by another member of the team, scored enough points to clinch the victory. Terry was "hot" while in the game, helping considerably to make up for the lack of heat shown by the regular high point men of the team. Kerlin and Davis were the best for the losers.

Lineups for the game were:

K. A. (27)	S. P. E. (10)
Phillips (6) ..... RF.....	Billisoly Clegg (2) ..... LF.....
Alexander (7) ..... C.....	Kerlin (2)
Terry (9) ..... RG.....	Davis (5)
Davis (1) ..... LG.....	Boyd (2)

Substitutions—Kappa Alpha: Livingston (2) for Alexander, Highsmith for Terry, Christie for Davis, Sigma Phi Epsilon: Chambers for Kerlin, Roberts for Chambers.

Theta Delta Has Cellar

It was scheduled to be a basketball game and a number of persons turned out to see it, but all they saw was two teams of five men each playing 40 minutes of "drop the ball" and "miss the basket." One of these groups was called Sigma Nu and the other Theta Delta Chi, and it seems that the Sigma Nu men didn't miss the basket quite as much as the others, so it must be recorded as Sigma Nu 13-Theta Delta Chi 9.

The spectators, however, did see something unusual and were kept in hysterics as they watched the lowly Theta Deltas run up a seven to nothing score in the first half, only to come back to be defeated as the winners tallied 13 points in the final period. But six field goals were made during the game, the winners getting four and the losers two.

Since the game could hardly be called a bona fide basketball game, no one man or any number of men could be said to be the outstanding players of the game. That tiny freshman Sigma Nu forward, Crouch, did his best to make it a game and with any support could have played a wonderful game. But one out of ten is not a large enough ratio to accomplish anything worth recording.

Neither team had yet won a game this year when they met and the result sent the Theta Deltas into an undisputed lead for the cellar position.

The lineups for the game were:

Sigma Nu (13)	T. D. X. (9)
Crouch (2) ..... RF.....	Mitchell (3)
Hill (6) ..... LF.....	Iverson (4)
Dooley (2) ..... C.....	Smith Snider (3) ..... RG.....

Substitutions—Sigma Nu: Sexton for Crouch, Waller for Hill, Crews for Snider. Theta Delta Chi: Austin for Iverson, Kranauer for Barnes, Coombs for Austin.

NASH PLAYS GOOD GAME

Chi Omega Has Only Five Players in First Half of Game With Phi Mu

Intersorority basketball got into full swing Tuesday night, November 6, at 7.30, when Alpha Delta Pi defeated Phi Delta, 23 to 4. Thursday night, November 8, Phi Mu beat Chi Omega in a closely-contested match by the score of 16 to 14. The same night, Phi Beta Phi was defeated, 15-12, by Gamma Beta Pi.

Dorothy Albert was the only member of the Tuesday game, who showed any particularly good work. She shot all but two of the eleven goals scored by her team.

The Phi Mu-Chi Omega game was a fast game and both sides showed good pass work, although Chi Omega was greatly handicapped during the first half by having only five players. Nash was the outstanding player on the Phi Mu team.

Marion Lum, Phi Phi forward, showed accurate pass work in the second game. Naomi Crumley was not up to her regular varsity form in the first half and only scored three goals. However, she improved in the second-half. McCoy did a good piece of work guarding the Phi Phi forwards.

Mrs. Russell and Miss Davis umpired the games. Maxine Alverson scored, and Jenny Turnbull was timer.

G. W. FRESHMEN TO MEET C. U. GRIDDEES

Game Scheduled for Friday, November 16, at Catholic University Stadium

All members of the freshman football squad are drilling faithfully under the able guidance of Coach Dick Newby for the approaching game with the Catholic University freshmen. The game is scheduled to be played in C. U.'s stadium on the afternoon of November the sixteenth.

Although the frosh squad lost their last tilt to Devitt Prep, they still retain their characteristic fighting spirit. The yearlings were outweighed by the prep school team, but their spirit was always noticeable. The freshmen will go into the fray, probably the underdog, since the C. U. yearlings trounced Devitt recently by the score of 14-0. However, it is hoped that the frosh will continue their fighting in hopes of a hard earned victory.

The squad has shown spirit in more ways than one, notably the large number of men remaining out for the team. The squad is made up of: Boyle, Adams, Shely, Gates, Staggers, Billisoly, Griggs, Parks, Goldman, Hudson, Purdy, Cohen, Jew, Swarthout, Olsen, McNeill, Cox, Reeside and Benenson.

Although Staggers was absent from the line-up in the Devitt game because of a wrenched leg, he will probably see lots of service on Friday, and will likewise bolster up the frosh offense.

TEA DANCING RESUMED

Tea dancing has been resumed at the Madrilon Restaurant in the Washington Building, every Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6.

Substitutions: Breckenridge for Crouch, Jackson for Omwake, Crouch for Detwiler, Sprout for Crouch, Detwiler for Breckenridge.

The standing of the two leagues to date is as follows:

Phi Mu	1	0	1.000
Phi Delta	0	1	.000
Chi Omega	0	1	1.000

CRUMMEN POINT FOR GAME WITH AMERICAN UNIV.

After Saturday Crummen Do Not Play Until Game With C. U. on Thanksgiving

COACH CRUM PRAISES
EDGERTON, CHRISTOPHER

Americans Are Working Hard For Game With Colonials, Observers Say

Hoping to break into the win column for the first time this season, the George Washington Colonials are looking forward to their game with American University Saturday, which will be played at the Central High School Stadium. The game will start at 2:30 and will be the Crummen's last performance before tackling their ancient foe, Catholic University, on Thanksgiving Day.

Into the fray Coach Crum will throw his strongest lineup in an effort to trounce the neighboring institution. Having met teams of much greater class all season, the Hatchettes have yet to win a game, but being about on a par with the Americans are looking forward toward registering their initial triumph Saturday. To date, Coach Bailey Springston's men have won but one game, scoring over Bridge-water, 12-6, a week ago Saturday. In the matter of points scored, however, their record is somewhat worse than that of the Colonials. The 50 points that Penn State rang up last week is the greatest number of points to be scored off the Colonials, but the American University has twice lost by a greater number, with scores of 81-0, and 69-0 checked up against them.

Fight Certain

However, there will be no love lost between the two teams on Saturday as both are bitter rivals and will fight to the last ditch. It is rumored that the Americans who are working hard for the G. W. game, and endeavoring to gain prestige, would relish a win over their more prominent rival. With American in this state of mind, and the Colonials anxious for their first win, there is likely to be quite a scrap staged at the Central Stadium.

One thing is certain. Colonial fans are sure to see a fighting team when their favorites run on the field for the game. Their fighting qualities and gameness have stamped themselves upon the minds of all who have seen them play this year and have drawn forth many favorable comments from the spectators.

Crum Praises Squad

In discussing the football situation last week, Coach Crum took particular pains to commend highly his few substitutes who have been on the squad all season. There are four or five men who have sat on the bench throughout every game, but their loyalty has not wavered. They have been out to practice every day in the week and subjected themselves to some cruel punishment by acting as targets for the regulars. Crum was particularly pleased with the spirit shown by Edgerton and Christopher.

In commenting upon these men Crum said, "There are four or five men on the squad who deserve a lot of credit. These men haven't gotten into any of the games but are out for practice every day. They volunteer for any rough work that has to be done and are more than willing to take a drubbing in an effort to help the team."

"If there were 30 or 40 more men like them in the University, there would be no such condition which now exists. It is men like Christopher and Edgerton who show such unwavering loyalty by coming out for practice day in and day out that gladden the heart of any coach. Eberly, Davis, and Clements, too, deserve credit for sticking with the squad although these men have broken into quite a few games."

Experience Valuable

"However, the whole bunch of them are picking up valuable pointers from daily observation and I expect them to be most useful to me in the future. These men are possessed with the real 'School Spirit' and I only wish there were more."

Although suffering the worst year that he has ever had since coming to G. W., Crum refuses to be discouraged and only takes it as the "ways of sports." It is impossible to expect a winning team every year, he avers, and a poor season is to be looked for every once in a while. At present, he has his mind only on one thing. That is to whip Catholic U. on November 29. If this can be accomplished, the season will be regarded a success, notwithstanding the beatings which the team has taken so far. Crum is hoping to have every man in the best of shape for this annual fray and will take no chances until then. At present, it looks as if every man would be fit with the exception of Captain Lope-man, who was probably put out of the season for good last week. Carey's wound is rapidly healing and Clapper is ready to go. It but remains for the rest of the team to keep fit so that the full strength will be available for the battle at the Brookland Stadium.

G. W. GOES DOWN BEFORE PENN ELEVEN

rapid succession in the first period but after that their scoring was somewhat irregular. The score at the end of the half was 44-0 and only 6 more points were registered after that. If the Colonials had anticipated such an onrush at the very outset they might have been more prepared, but as it was, the strong start of the Lions swept them entirely off their feet and the points piled up before the game was very old. Within the first five minutes, the State team had rung up three touchdowns and the 19 point advantage had a very bad psychological effect on the losers.

First Quarter

State kicked off, and Berkowitz ran the ball back 25 yards to his own 30-yard line. In two attempts, Berkowitz made 5 yards and Lope-man kicked to Miller standing on the State 39-yard line. On the very first play, Deidrich got through the center of the line, and eluding the Colonial secondary defense ran 65 yards to a touchdown. Delp missed the try for extra point.

Berkowitz again took the kick-off and ran to the 25-yard line. A line play failed but Lope-man passed to Berkowitz for 9 yards. Barrows failed to gain and Lope-man kicked to Miller on the State 39-yard line. Hamas made 5 yards but Miller was stopped after gaining only a yard and a half around end. Deidrich went around end to the G. W. 32-yard line, only being stopped by Barrows who was the last man in his way. Evans hit tackle for 2 yards but Miller was smeared 3 yards behind the line. Hamas then

CO-ED HOCKEY ELEVEN TO MEET SWARTHMORE

Varsity Team to be Chosen by Mrs. Russell From Large Group of Aspirants

The girls varsity hockey team will clash with the Swarthmore co-ed aggregation at the Washington Ellipse on Saturday, November 17. This will be the first game of the varsity season.

Last year the G. W. girls held their opponents to a 11-0 score, though the powerful attack of the Swarthmore team would probably have had an even greater effect, but for the plucky defense playing which the Colonial team exhibited.

On Saturday, November 24, the Colonials will play the State Teachers' College of Harrisonburg, Virginia, in the second game on their schedule. This game also will be played at home, for the contest takes place on the Washington Ellipse.

A large group of girls have been attending varsity practice regularly on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, and from this squad the varsity team will be picked.

Those who are competing for the forward positions are Maxine Alvord, Alice Graham, Mary Spral, Ruth Chindbull, Myrtle Crouch, Alice Adams, Evelyn Folsom, Ida Horne, Katherine McCallum, and Francesca Martin. While the backfield will be chosen from the following: Jenny Turnbull, Elizabeth Zimmerman, Caroline Hobbs, Louise DuBose, Sarah Reed, Claudia Kyle, Lillian Breckinridge, Cary Aal, Inge Von Lewinski, India Bell Corea, Martha Beneson.

The position of goal will be played by either India Bell Corea, Inge Von Lewinski, or Elizabeth Brainerd, as these girls are all competing for the post.

passed to Deidrich who ran 30 yards behind perfect interference for a touchdown. Delp again missed the kick.

The Colonials got a bad "break" on the next kick-off, when Berkowitz fumbled the ball on his own 10-yard line. Before he could be stopped, Hamas had picked up the oval and raced over the goal line. This time Delp kicked the goal, making the score 19-0.

After taking the ball to the 28-yard line, Berkowitz failed to gain on the first play. Barrows went through for 3 yards and Lope-man kicked to Miller on the State 40-yard line. Miller started to his left and then reversed his field and went to the Colonial 35-yard mark before being downed. Miller was thrown for 4 yards behind the line and a second attempt failed to gain. Delp then took Miller's pass, and with no Colonial player near him romped 25 yards for the score. Miller's pass for the extra point was unsuccessful.

George Washington then chose to kick-off and Miller ran the ball back to his own 38-yard line before being stopped by Lope-man. Evans went through for 4 yards and Hamas added 5 more. Hamas missed a first down by inches on the next play but Miller went over for the required distance, taking the ball to State's 49-yard line. Deidrich broke through to the G. W. 25-yard line but the play was called back and State penalized 15 yards. Miller kicked over the goal line and G. W. took the ball on its own 20-yard mark.

Barrows' pass was incomplete and Lope-man kicked to Miller on the G. W. 42-yard line. Hamas made 3 yards and Miller went through to the G. W. 32-yard mark. State was again penalized 15 yards, and two passes were incomplete. Miller then punted out of bounds on the Colonial 27-yard mark as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

G. W.'s ball on its own 27-yard line. Lope-man passed to Berkowitz for 8 yards and the same play netted a first down on the 42-yard mark. Frazier made only 2 yards and Lope-man's pass to Berkowitz failed to gain. Lope-man punted and a G. W. player touched the ball near mid-field. Thinking the oval dead, the Colonial players allowed Hamas to pick it up and without trying to stop him, allowed him to run over the goal line. The score was ruled legal as the whistle had not blown when the G. W. man had touched the ball. The kick failed, making the score 31-0.

The State kick went over the goal line and it was G. W.'s ball on its own 20-yard line. Allshouse immediately kicked and Lope-man downed the ball on the Lions' 43-yard line. McCracken hit the line for 6 yards and Hamas made it first down on the G. W. 41-yard stripe. Deidrich and McCracken made 3 and 5 yards respectively, but State was penalized 5 yards. Hamas' pass was knocked down by Clements but McCracken went over for a first down on the 26-yard line. Deidrich failed to gain but Collins and Deidrich each added 4 yards. State was penalized 15 yards. The receiver of a pass was found to be ineligible and the play was called back. Lope-man was hurt on this play and forced to leave the game, Morrow taking his place.

Bezdek sent in his entire second team. Collins passed to Kaplan on the G. W. 20-yard line but failed to make first down and the ball went to G. W. Barrows passed to Berkowitz for 2 yards and Frazier did not gain. Allshouse kicked to McCracken who was downed on the Colonials' 27-yard line after a 15-yard run. Hensle was thrown for a 10-yard loss and Collins was run out of bounds after an 18-yard gain. Hensle was stopped and State penalized 5 yards. McCracken then broke through the center of the line and ran 23 yards for a touchdown. Collins kicked the goal, making the score 38-0.

G. W. kicked off and Livesey ran back to mid-field. Livesey made a first down on the G. W. 40-yard line and added 5 more through the center of the line. Hensle went through tackle to the 20-yard line and on the next play McCracken again broke through the line to run 20 yards for a touchdown. The kick failed. Livesey again received the kick-off and returned it to the Colonial 45-yard mark before being stopped by Barrows. McCracken's pass was incomplete. State was penalized 5 yards before Collins made a short punt to Barrows on the G. W. 37-yard line. Berkowitz was forced out of bounds as the half ended.

Third Quarter

State's starting line-up returned to the game. Hamas ran the kick-off to the 43-yard line, and Miller broke through to the G. W. 48-yard line. Hamas made it first down on the 44 yard stripe and Miller went to the Colonials' 27-yard line. Evans hit center for 8 yards but the next three plays failed to gain and State lost the ball on downs.

Barrows tore off a 19 yard gain before being stopped on the 33-yard line. Berkowitz lost 2 yards and the attempt failed to gain. Barrows' pass was incomplete and Allshouse kicked out side on the State 45-yard mark. Deidrich ran to G. W.'s 35-yard line before being stopped. Hamas made 12 yards and Miller went to the 10-yard line. Evans hit the line for 6 yards and Miller took the ball to within three inches of the goal. Miller then went around right end for the Lions' only score in this half. Hamas' kick was blocked, making the score 50-0.

Deidrich took the kick-off to the 38-yard line. Miller's pass was broken up and Deidrich fumbled but recovered. Evans went around end for 12 yards and Hamas hit center for 7 more. Deidrich made it first down on the G. W. 37-yard mark and Miller added another first down on the 25-yard line. Evans went through to the 8-yard line before he stumbled. Deidrich added 3 yards but here the Colonial defense stiffened. Miller was thrown for an 8-yard loss but Miller passed to Hamas who went to the 3-yard mark. Miller was stopped one yard from the goal and G. W. took the ball on downs.

Allshouse immediately punted from behind his own goal line but the kick only went 15 yards. With the ball on the G. W. 16-yard line, State started a passing attack, but Miller's first heave was intercepted by Allshouse on the 11-yard line and G. W. again took the ball. Berkowitz and Barrows failed to gain but Barrows passed to Berkowitz for 17 yards. Frazier made it first down on his own 30-yard line, as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Allshouse took Barrows' pass for 8 yards. Allshouse then punted and the kick was downed by a Colonial player on State's 10-yard line. A State fumble gave G. W. the ball on their opponents' 20-yard line. Berkowitz failed to gain on the first play but Barrows passed to Allshouse who took the pigskin to the State 5-yard line. Morrow went outside to have the ball brought in 15 yards to the center of the field. On the next attempt Morrow took the ball to within one foot of the goal but was stopped in the next attempt. Clapper was sent into the game at this point to pass, but his heave missed the intended receiver and State took the ball on downs.

State fumbled again on the first play and G. W. once more recovered. Barrows passed to Berkowitz for 10 yards and Allshouse took a pass to the 5-yard mark but G. W. was penalized 5 yards and State given the ball. Wolf went through for 7 yards and again for 14 yards. McCracken added 6 more and Hensle ran 23 yards to the G. W. 41-yard mark. McCracken was thrown 7 yards behind the line of scrimmage but Wolf made 7 around end. Berkowitz knocked down Collins' long pass. McCracken kicked to Barrows on the latter's 15-yard line. Penn State was off side on the play and the ball was brought back. Barrows again received the kick on the 15-yard line.

A pass was incomplete and Clapper was thrown for a 5-yard loss. Allshouse kicked to Collins on the 40-yard line. Moonves went through for 10 yards and McCracken added 5 more. Collins got 4 yards at tackle and Hensle made it first down on the 15-yard line. McCracken made 7 yards and then carried the ball to the 5-yard line for a first down. State was penalized 5 yards. Again the Colonial defense held and after taking the ball to the 1-yard line, the Pennsylvanians were unable to

GOLF CONTEST CALLED OFF BY CAPTAIN COLE

Last Year's Players to be Team's Hope This Season in Heavy Schedule

Due to the apparent lack of interest on the part of the school and the failure of the few competitors to turn in their cards on time, the annual golf tournament to be held to assist in selecting next year's team material has been called off.

While it may be a trifle difficult to obtain new material, Capt. C. Cole has a good start on the season by having a number of last year's men back again. Among those who will make up the team are C. Cole, John Shorey, Julian Heron, Frank Marzulla, Albert Alexander, and Cecil Wilkins.

The manager of the team who has been negotiating with Princeton, the University of Pennsylvania, and Navy for matches this year, hopes in including them on the future schedule. Among the teams that George Washington has previously competed with on the links and which plans are being made to meet again are Penn State, the University of Virginia and William and Mary. Letters have been written to all the aforementioned universities.

9:10 GYM CLASS WINS BASKETBALL SERIES

Defeat 4:10 Class 15 to 7 to Take Championship of Freshmen Gym Classes

During the past week the basketball champions of the freshmen gym classes were decided. The final game was a thriller in all senses of the word. However the 9:10 gym class team triumphed over the 4:10 team by the score of 15-7.

Castell, Jewell and Perry starred for the victors, while the shining lights of the 4:10 team were Golden and Lynch.

The winners did the majority of their scoring in the first half, accounting for ten points. In the second half the defensive combination of Lynch and Grad began to function more evenly and the victors' scoring streak was somewhat halted.

Frequent substitutions on the losers team hurt their cause, as usually the best machines were injected into the fray. However each man gave a good account of himself throughout the battle.

As a result of all the interest shown in this recent tournament, the Sophomore team has challenged the winners of the Freshmen class. Therefore the 'Sophs will have to go up against the crack 9:10 team in order to determine the champions of the school in the gym class league.

This has been the first attempt at intramural sports among the men, and the success of these events has been laid to the fact of the unusual amount of spirit among the present freshmen and to the tireless efforts of Physical Director Dove Thompson to put through the plan with his daily gym classes.

MEETING OF W. A. A. PLANS FROSH PARTY

Rule Made That No Non-Members of Association Be Eligible To Athletic Awards

Several important questions were discussed at the meeting of the Women's Athletic Association, which was held in Corcoran Hall on Wednesday night, November 7.

The party for freshmen women, which the Association is to sponsor, will be held about December 15. The committee which was chosen to arrange the details of the entertainment and refreshments consists of Caroline Hobbs, chairman, and Jennie Turnbull and Nancy Griswold.

The Association has ruled that no one will be eligible for subsequent athletic awards who is not a member of the Association. This means attendance at two-thirds of the meetings, since members are dropped for non-attendance.

Plans were advanced for the publishing of a handbook containing the constitution of the Association and lists of various girls' athletic teams for the benefit of new women at the University.

At the next meeting of the Association, which will be held the first Wednesday in December, the yearly dues of one dollar will be collected.

Youth Runs to the Rescue As Cruel Blast Snatches Scarf From Lady's Neck

The time when knighthood was in flower was revived for a few brief moments last Friday evening on the G Street side of the campus before a large crowd of amazed students. What they witnessed would have done ample justice to the age when armored knights crossed swords for the hand of a fair damsel.

A sweeping November blast became a bit too vicious and rudely snatched a silk scarf from the neck of a fair young lady and swept it upward until it came to rest on a lofty branch in a nearby tree. It was a critical situation and the fair one was in dire distress until a chivalrous youth gallantly offered his services.

He promptly proceeded to shift the tree which held the scarf in a fashion that would have made Darwin doubly certain had he been a witness. When our hero succeeded in shaking free the elusive bit of silk a lusty cheer arose from the thrilled spectators. But the cheers turned to groans when the scarf, in its downward course caught again on a branch in a neighboring tree.

The gallant youth was not to be disheartened however. He forsook terra firma for a second time and after much hazardous maneuvering brought the prize safely to earth. Although no laurel wreath was placed on the victor's brow the words of praise that the young lady, whose scarf had so nobly been retrieved, whispered to her champion would have made even the most modest of ancient knights swell with pride, for it was learned that she extended him an invitation to her sorority dance that night.

PROFESSOR FARNHAM TO SPEAK AT CHAPEL

Professor George Farnham will be the speaker at the Chapel service to be held this Friday at noon in Corcoran Hall 1. Professor Farnham, who is the Professor of Public Speaking here at the University, as well as a prominent minister of Washington, is a good speaker, and the meeting promises to be interesting.

Chapel services, under Dean Wilbur, have been attended by a larger group this year than ever before. It is hoped by Dean Wilbur that more students will find time to attend this short service weekly. As the service lasts only twenty minutes, it does not take much of a student's time, and it certainly is worth while.

The band, when it discovered its mistake, swung into parade formation and marched the four miles to the Northwestern stadium.

An echo that circles
the globe

Sightseers returning from the Alps never fail to babble of the marvelous echoes that reverberate so obligingly from peak to peak.

But no such phenomenon matches a certain echo that keeps circling this whole mundane sphere. It is the best-known cigarette slogan ever coined—the Chesterfield phrase "They Satisfy."

Originated to describe a unique coupling of qualities seemingly opposed—"they're mild, and yet they satisfy"—its descriptive accuracy was instantly perceived. Today it echoes and re-echoes wherever cigarettes are smoked:

"Satisfacen...ils satisfont...THEY SATISFY!"

And rightly enough, for Chesterfields are mild—and they DO satisfy...and what more can any cigarette offer?

HEADS SELECTED FOR INTERNATIONAL CLUB

Group Chooses Howard Payne as President for Coming Year's Activities

At a recent meeting of the International Relations Club the election of officers for the current school year was held and the following results announced:

For President — Howard Payne, senior and an advanced student in international law and relations in the School of Government was chosen.

Mrs. Pauline Bapp Burd, president of the club last year and chairman of the executive committee was chosen vice-president. Mrs. Burd has had much to do with directing the Club in past years.

N. Soosa of Iraq was given the post of secretary-treasurer. Soosa has been affiliated with International Relations Clubs in no less than three institutions and has a vital interest in Near Eastern affairs. Meetings of the Club are to be held monthly or oftener, depending on the development of subjects of interest to the Club, and will be held in the evening to enable night school students to attend.

The executive committee is now preparing for the consideration of the members a well-integrated program for the year, calculated both to offer to members the opportunity to hear lectures of international repute, and to enable them to participate in the discussions and other work of the Club.

Mr. C. Walter Young of the faculty of the School of Government will act as advisor to the Club. Mr. Young, who has but recently joined the faculty here was in China from 1925 to 1927 and in Leyden University, Holland, as the first Willard Straight Fellow in Chinese Studies under the Institution of International Education of New York.

THIS BELIEVING WORLD

COLUMBUS (IP).—This story was told on the Ohio State Campus when Michigan and Ohio State met on the football field.

The incident happened upon the occasion of the Michigan-Ohio State game here six years ago. Coach Fielding H. Yost of Michigan, who is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, is in the habit of dropping around to the local chapter house when in Columbus.

Upon this occasion his knock was answered by a freshman who seemed to have a considerable amount of self-assurance for a pledge.

"I'm Fielding H. Yost, the Michigan Coach," said Coach Yost by way of a self-introduction.

"That so?" drawled the freshman, puffing out a cloud of cigarette smoke. "Come on in and sit down, then I'll tell one."

DEBATERS FROWN AT INDIFFERENCE TOWARD CHURCH

Columbian Debaters View With Alarm Present Attitude of The People

BIRTH CONTROL TO BE DEBATED FRIDAY, NOV. 16

Debaters Enthusiastic Over Annual Dance; Committee to Give Details at Next Meeting

After having a debate that seemed like a testimonial meeting, the members of the Columbian Debating Society decided last Friday evening, November 9, that the organization should view with alarm the present indifference to the church in the United States.

Ernest L. Heckert and Bryant Z. McLeRoy maintained the affirmative side of the question. Ralph Morgoli and Richard F. Johnson defended the negative.

"We admit that the churches do not hold the key to heaven," declared Heckert. "They have, however, an important mission. They teach the worth of the individual. While they are being scoffed at they continue teaching morality."

No Lack of Faith Today

"There is not a lack of faith today," contended Morgoli, "but the church needs a good baptism of fire. The more indifference toward the church the better for all concerned, because it will be made to go back to the fundamentals that are responsible for its existence and to quit internal strife."

McLeRoy attacked bitterly the present indifference to the church. "Prosperity is causing this indifference," he said. "We are like the swine under the oak trees eating acorns and not looking up to see from whence they come. Indifference never produced anything good."

Johnson forcefully defended the present indifference. "It is not undermining faith," he said. "The present tendency is individualism. The church is ultra-conservative, slow to change, but always changing. The radio is responsible for some of the changes. Now many people prefer to hear the church services in their homes. Just the same now, as it has always been, sacramental grace is the pillar of society."

The three-minute speakers from the floor were very enthusiastic in their commendations or denunciations of the church. No member of Columbian went so far, however, as to admit that he was an atheist. Those who made short speeches were: Jarrett, C. T. Shanner, Roy Howard, John F. Jackson, H. R. Duncan, Josiah Lyman, James G. Wingo, Ralph Joyce, L. Demblitz and H. B. Harper.

To Debate Birth Control

The subject for the debate next Friday, November 16, at 8:00 p. m. in Corcoran Hall 15, is "Resolved, That the dissemination of birth control information should be legalized." James G. Wingo and C. T. Shanner will maintain the affirmative side, and Josiah Lyman and Roy Howard will uphold the negative.

The members of Columbian Debating Society who were present at the last meeting expressed enthusiastically their desire to back the annual dance and to make it a success. The dance committee will be ready to give the details about the affair in the next meeting of the society.

By STAGE DOOR JOHNNY

COLUMBIA

"White Shadows of the South Seas," now current at Loew's Columbia, is an M-G-M sound production, featuring Monte Blue and Raquel Torres.

The story opens with Monte Blue as Dr. Lloyd, a beachcomber physician, salvaging the lives of the native pearl divers on a South Sea island. Lloyd finds in his own maimed heart a great pity for these simple islanders who are being exploited by white traders. He earns the enmity of the latter and is shanghaied aboard a pest ship. After all others except himself have died the ship is wrecked on an uncharted atoll and Lloyd is cast ashore.

After many hardships he finds himself in a native village which has never seen a white man. He marries the pretty daughter of the chief, but when he finds pearls his cupidity is aroused and he desires to go back to civilization.

He lights a beacon fire which brings his old enemy, the trader, to the island. Later he is killed defending his wife, and the island becomes the prey of the white man like others in the South Seas.

The Metro Movietone acts present Fuzzy Knight, singing comedian, and the Ponce Sisters, singers of popular songs and harmony duets. In addition, there are the Fox Movietone News, the M-G-M News and an orchestral feature with film effects by the Columbia Orchestra, Claude Burrows conducting.

EARLE

The Earle Theater offers for this week "Show Girl." First National's picture, with synchronized sound and music, of the Broadway satire by J. P. McEvoy.

Alfred Santell directed the picture, which features Alice White as Dixie Dugan, the sophisticated little heroine who is a type distinctly Broadway. She wins by sheer pluck and a refusal to be downed. She is a salamander, romping through the flames, yet never being singed. True, she begins humbly as a stenographer, but she reaches musical comedy heights, passing through the night clubs en route, and in the end wins the reporter and, it is assumed, future martial happiness.

Donald Reed, Charles Delaney, Lee Moran, Kate Price, Jimmie Finlayson and Richard Tucker play the chief supporting roles. The settings are elaborate. It is described as a picture that begins and ends in a blaze of color.

Besides synchronized musical accompaniment, "Show Girl" offers all of the music of a Broadway show and several vocal numbers.

Ethel Grey Terry will be featured in a two-reel Vitaphone playlet, "Sharp Tools," by Willard Mack. A Hal Roach Max Davidson comedy, "The Boy Friend"; the Earle Topical News and a miniature concert by the Earle Orchestra, under Daniel Breeskin, complete the program.

FOX

The second in a series of Vitaphone talking pictures booked for the Fox Theater will be shown the current week, when Conrad Nagel and May McAvoy are presented in "Caught in the Fog."

Conrad Nagel is said to be at his best in a light comedy role, and Miss McAvoy, too, is said to be happily cast.

The story is built around the disappearance of a set of pearls, all of which is stated to create much laughter and with a goodly share of thrills thrown in. Mack Swain, the rotund comedian, who scored with Charlie Chaplin in several of his pictures, has an important role.

The stage portion of the program will be an elaborate presentation, with several entertaining stars featured.

The Fox Orchestra, with Leon Brunisoff conducting, will offer a special overture, while the Fox Movietone News and other subsidiary features will round out the program.

METROPOLITAN

Paramount's production of "Beggars of Life," by Jim Tully, rover, hobo and tramp, who has risen to be one of America's best known authors, will be the screen attraction at Crandall's Metropolitan Theater this week.

It is a story of Hobohemia, revealing the secret of wanderlust, a story of men fighting an environment.

Wallace Beery, seen once more in the dramatic type of roles in which he first attained success, appears as Oklahoma Red, a dominating figure of tramping. Louise Brooks and Richard Arlen are seen in leading juvenile roles.

The picture is accompanied by music and effects and Wallace Beery is heard for the first time on the talking screen in a vocal rendition during one of the anti-climaxes of the story.

The added attractions include the Metropolitan Topical News and two short reel Vitaphone presentations: Shaw and Lee, comedians, formerly with the "Five O'Clock Girl," and Ed Wynn's "Grab Bag" will be featured in "The Beau Brummels" and Jane Green in "Singing the Blues."

PALACE

George Bancroft in "The Docks of New York" is the picture shown at Loew's Palace this week, with a supporting cast headed by Betty Compson and Bacalova.

"The Docks of New York" revolves around the lives and loves of a little herd of people; those who live in the dark pits of steamships and find their social life when they reach port.

Bancroft portrays the role of a ship stoker—the rough, virile type that he so excels in. How he is brought to realize the finer points of life is the climax of the story. The story is by John Monk Saunders, author of "Wings."

TWO RECITALS GIVEN BY MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Concerts Given at Sibley Hospital and Georgetown Presbyterian Church

At Sibley Hospital, a very successful concert was rendered by the G. W. U. Men's Glee Club on November 2. The members who participated in this recital were all experienced men who have been in the club in former years.

Three days after, on November 5, the Glee Club had a second concert. This was held at the Georgetown Presbyterian Church. The group appearing there was also made up of experienced men, the Old Guard, as Mr. Robert Harmon puts it. In addition to the numbers given in the previous concert, other numbers were added.

As yet, the schedule for the winter season has not been made up. It is expected that it will fall along the same lines as followed last year. Then the club appeared at the Washington Hotel, the Willard and others, and at Walter Reed, and also held joint recitals with the clubs of other institutions.

The season is to culminate in a tourney, in which the clubs of George Washington, American U., Maryland, and Catholic U. will participate.

How Gold Prospector "Went Scotch"

Minneapolis, Minn.

April 30, 1928

Larus & Bro. Co.

Richmond, Va.

Dear Sirs:

Two years ago last winter I went into the Red-Lake gold fields in Canada. It was a tough trail from Hudson, over 140 miles of snow and ice. There were fourteen of us on the trail going in, and frequently at night when seated around a big camp fire, some one would ask me for a pipeful of Edgeworth. These Canadian boys sure like our Edgeworth.

In four weeks' time I ran out of Edgeworth. I was glad to get most any old tobacco.

One day, however, I dropped in to Dad Brown's tent, a 72-year-old prospector, and seeing a can of Edgeworth on an improvised table, back there 150 miles from the "steel," I perked up at once, saying, "Dad, I'm plum out of tobacco—how's chances for a pipeful?" "Help yourself," he said. So pulling my heavy duty pipe from my pocket, I loaded it with Edgeworth, packing it in so tightly that I couldn't get the least bit of a draw.

I excused myself for a moment, and stepped outside to remove about three pipefuls to put in my pouch. Dad stepped out, saying, "You're worse than any Scotchman I ever saw." Then I confessed: I told him what happened to my Edgeworth—that I was just dying for a smoke, and he understood right away. He said, "Boy, Edgeworth is mighty scarce in these parts, but I reckon I can spare what's left of that can. Help yourself."

You can just bet your last nickel that I guarded this Edgeworth with extreme care until I got back to the "steel."

Yours very truly,

C. M. Bahr
